

FORMER WIFE THOUGHT SHE WAS MARRIED

Suit of Mixer vs. Mixer Decided Against Judge's Ideas of Right and Wrong of Case.

WOMAN VICTIM OF DECEPTION.

Letter of the Law Makes It Necessary to Give Judgment Against Person Who Was Apparently Injured.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. San Francisco, Cal., May 31.—I don't blame you at all, Mrs. Mixer. I blame the man whom you thought was your husband. The law says he was not. Your remedy lies in a suit for payment for your services as his housekeeper during all the time you have erroneously believed yourself his wife.

So, Judge Hubbard was reluctantly obliged by the law to give a decision for the plaintiff in the case of George H. Mixer vs. Nettie Mixer.

Practically no attempt was made to shade the testimony of the defendant, but, unluckily for her, it proved the case against her, though it showed that she had been the victim of deception.

The Mixers were married in 1882, living together until March 3, 1898, when the wife obtained a divorce on the ground of her husband's extreme cruelty. Mixer went East and, as he boasted in letters to Nettie, "had a fine time with the New York Four Hundred."

After a few months, however, he returned to San Francisco, hunted up his former wife, declared that she was his wife, and she was the only one he loved and urged her to marry him again.

After a few months until the year should have elapsed, he insisted on marriage, and a "honeymoon" was an inducement promised to lead her to his property. This promise, however, he did not keep.

When a start for Nevada was finally made, Mixer took a circuitous route, going to Stockton and then to Sacramento, traveling under the name of Fuller.

According to the testimony, he induced her to take some medicine that dazed and bewildered her. After a few hours' journey from Sacramento, the couple got off at a small village which Mixer called Nevada, and he escorted her to a hotel and left her, as he said, to go after a license.

"And that is all I remember," said Mrs. Mixer, "until he took me to the altar for the return trip, assuring me that we had been married. Often afterwards I asked for another marriage, but he always insisted that what had taken place was wedding enough for him."

Shot Woman After Quarrel. George Hatch seriously wounded Mrs. Bartholomew.

New York, May 31.—After a bitter quarrel George Hatch shot and seriously wounded Mrs. Lizette Bartholomew in an open field between Nineteenth and Twentieth streets, Brooklyn.

Hatch is 22 years old. He is a foreman for the Western Electric Company and boarded with Mrs. Bartholomew at No. 3949 Nineteenth street, Brooklyn, for several years until May 1 last, when he hired a flat in the Twentieth street building, directly in the rear of Mrs. Bartholomew's home.

Mrs. Bartholomew is married and has seven children. She is 33 years old. Hatch drew a revolver and fired three shots, all of which took effect. The first bullet struck Bartholomew in the left eye, the next in the back of the head, while she was falling, and the last hit her in the left hand.

Mrs. Bartholomew was carried to her home by neighbors and later was taken to the St. Mary's hospital.

Hatch was held by Magistrate Tighe to await the result of the woman's injuries. His defense is that he shot in self-defense.

"I became a boarder at the Bartholomew home at her request," said he. "I met her while I was a soldier at Fort Hamilton. She attended dances there. She called at my rooms last night and struck me and accused me of firing a shot at her. We went to the street and she struck me again. I returned and got my pistol, as I was afraid of her. She attacked me again, and I was forced to shoot."

Held on Kidnap Charge. Little Katie Finn Says Stranger Tried to Abduct Her.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, May 31.—Ludwig Mercer, who is under arrest on a charge of attempting to kidnap 4-year-old Katie Finn of No. 117 Twelfth street, Jersey City, was arraigned in the Jersey City Police Court.

The prisoner refused to give his address and said that he had no intention of kidnapping the girl. Katie, he said, remained with her mother and fair-haired father.

The child was happily and fairly-haired. She was asked by Justice Hoop if she had ever seen Mercer before.

"Yes," answered the tot; "on my sidewalk. He said to me: 'Hello, little girl; I have come to take you away.' I then ran to my mamma."

A number of love letters were found on Mercer. One began with "My Darling Rose," and another with "My Sweetheart Annie." One of the envelopes was addressed to C. W. Kahler, 60, 8 Henry street, Brooklyn. The police believe that he wrote letters to himself. He admitted his name was Kahler, but refused his address, except to say that he was now living in Hoboken. A slip of paper was found on Mercer, or Kahler, with the address No. 63 First street, Hoboken. The police think the man lives there.

Court Officer Doyle recognized in the prisoner a man who was arrested some four months ago on a similar charge. Mercer admitted the fact and was held for further examination.

Miners Find a New Cave. Stalactites in California Cavern Are Highly Sulphurated.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Mokelumne Hill, May 31.—A beautiful subterranean cave was discovered in running a tunnel at the Iowa Consolidated mine at Mokelumne Hill, Cal. The cave is nearly 300 feet underground, and almost 200 feet from the mouth of the tunnel.

THE MEYER STORE

THE BIG ALCO CLOTHING SALE FOR MEN. Is by no means letting up. Seems as though this sale was inaugurated just at a time when you needed clothing worst—and especially when THE PRICES ARE AT EXACTLY A HALF AND LESS.

A SALE OF WALKING AND DRESS SKIRTS. Begins promptly in the morning—prices so low that selling will be an easy matter—there's economy in every item quoted below.

LADIES' SUMMER STOCKS. 25c and 49c Will secure for you the most stylish Stocks, with ties, CHEMISETTES of mull for 49c.

PURE FOOD GROCERY NOTES. Every day you'll find something here in this hygienic grocery store of ours at smaller prices than elsewhere.

WINE AND LIQUORS. $1.18 for Hunter's Baltimore Rye. 50c per bottle for Very Old California Port.

SUMMER OPENING DISPLAY OF WHITE TRIMMED HATS. One that should create considerable comment from lovers of well-milinery—this showing includes many new Paris and New York made models—and our efforts to make stylish headwear in white at the very smallest cost should certainly appeal to lovers of exquisite millinery.

THE MATTING SALE IS GROWING. More enthusiastic every day—hundreds and hundreds of matting wanters came Saturday—more matting offers will be added in the morning and more helpers to assist you in selecting.

WAISTS FOR SUMMER. Choice lot of wash silk and silk gingham Waists, in all the fancy stripes—our regular $2.50 and $3.00 waists, for 1.48.

THE MEYER STORE. COR. BROADWAY & WASHINGTON.

SUMMER FABRICS. WOOLEN DRESS FABRICS ARE WORK ALL SUMMER LONG, SUCH AS VOILES, ETAMINES, MISTRALS, CRASHES, HOPEACKINGS.

NECKWEAR FOR MEN. 50c and 75c sort 25c. The entire broken and surplus stock of FISCHLOWITZ & FRANK, THIS CITY. Neckwear that was made by them to sell at $4.50 to $6.00 a dozen WHOLESALE.

DRAPERIES. 25 SCOTCH LACE BED SETS, full size, spread and shams, Renaissance patterns, a set 1.29.

$1.50 MEN'S SHIRTS. Seven hundred Men's Finest Quality Madras Shirts go on sale in the morning at 60c.

GIRLS' DRESSES. From 6 to 14 years. Two odd lots of pretty and dainty dresses for growing girls—at great savings.

GOOD LACES. 98c A YARD—a selection of a large number of patterns of ecru, white, cream and Arabian shade applique from 3 to 4 inches wide.

EMBROIDERIES. 5c A YARD—about 4 to 6 inches wide, edges on good cloth.

THE BASEMENT. Growing from the point of small prices and big values to you. A hint at what's going on: YARD-WIDE BURLINGH LONG CLOTH—25c is the usual price—22c.

VETERAN ROUGH-RIDER BRODIE NEW GOVERNOR OF ARIZONA.

COLONEL A. O. BRODIE. Recently appointed Governor of Arizona.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Phoenix, Ariz., May 31.—Colonel A. O. Brodie, the veteran Rough Rider, who has recently been appointed Governor of this Territory, was graduated from West Point in 1870, and promoted to a Second Lieutenancy in the same year.

When the Spanish-American war broke out he organized the Arizona quota of the First United States Cavalry, familiarly known as the Rough Riders.

After Brodie left the regular army he worked for a time as a day laborer in the mines of Arizona. His climb to the top, however, was rapid, and a few years later he was put in charge of the great Walnut Grove dam on the Hassayampa River, north

LITTLE RUNAWAYS FOLLOWED CIRCUS.

Two Show-Struck Lads Walked Thirty Miles to See Performance.

THEN REFUSED ADMITTANCE. When Found in Brooklyn by a Sympathetic Policeman They Were Scared, Hungry and Homesick.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, May 31.—Two circus-struck youths, who had worked their way on a capital of 25 cents from Elizabeth to Brooklyn, a distance of more than thirty miles, simply to gratify their ardent desire with another glimpse of the gleaming white canvas, and, perhaps by good fortune, he admitted to view all the hidden delights concealed therein from view, were picked up in front of the cook's tent at the Halsey street grounds, where they were wistfully sniffing the savory odors which emanated from within, where the breakfasts of the show hands were being prepared.

They were in a condition closely bordering on utter exhaustion when Policeman Moran happened along, and, learning first of all of the craving state of the inner youth, showed the venturesome young tourists to an adjacent barnery without waiting to hear more.

They were in a condition closely bordering on utter exhaustion when Policeman Moran happened along, and, learning first of all of the craving state of the inner youth, showed the venturesome young tourists to an adjacent barnery without waiting to hear more.

They were in a condition closely bordering on utter exhaustion when Policeman Moran happened along, and, learning first of all of the craving state of the inner youth, showed the venturesome young tourists to an adjacent barnery without waiting to hear more.

They were in a condition closely bordering on utter exhaustion when Policeman Moran happened along, and, learning first of all of the craving state of the inner youth, showed the venturesome young tourists to an adjacent barnery without waiting to hear more.

They were in a condition closely bordering on utter exhaustion when Policeman Moran happened along, and, learning first of all of the craving state of the inner youth, showed the venturesome young tourists to an adjacent barnery without waiting to hear more.

ST. PATRICK'S PIPE AND DRUM CORPS.

ST. PATRICK'S PIPE AND DRUM CORPS. Reading from left to right: Top row—W. Lenahan, P. Lacy, J. Hynes, T. Golden, G. Julka. Second row—J. Murphy, J. O'Loughlin, M. Callahan, P. Durkin, W. Daly, J. Huleer, T. Keegan, T. Haley. Front row—Master Lewis, Magee, J. Golden, the Reverend Father Dempsey, C. Hunfield, H. Giovanni, B. Fox, Master Ryan.

St. Patrick's Pipe and Drum Corps has toured Central Illinois and made a great hit wherever it appeared. The corps assisted at the dedication of St. Joseph's Church in Granite City.

This organization is composed of young men, members of St. Patrick's Parish of this city, and will participate in the reunion and picnic to be given by that church at the Fair Grounds on July 4.

There will also be an evening excursion on the steamer Hill City Thursday, July 17, for the benefit of the pipe and drum corps. Father Dempsey is extremely proud of this young organization.

the fact of it, the Prince's treatment of his fellow-countrymen compares very unfavorably with the almost undignified affair which he displayed during his visit to the United States.

DIVER'S NARROW ESCAPE. Workmen Shattered His Glass Helmet While Under Water.

St. Joseph, Mich., May 31.—Thomas Mahon, who for the last two seasons has been employed as a diver, has had a narrow escape from drowning.

PRINCE CAUSES EXCITEMENT. Refusal to Receive a Deputation of Germans Created a Disturbance.

SPECIAL BY CABLE. London, May 31.—The visit of Prince Henry of Prussia to Dublin and his refusal to receive a deputation of Germans, created a riot, which shows no signs of abating.

The address of the Germans included the signature of Count von Stolberg and two well-known German artists, while the professor of German at Trinity College, Dublin, acted as chairman.

One of the members of the delegation is quoted as saying: "One would naturally have expected that, as in New York, one of the first thoughts of the Prince and his Captains would have been to shake hands with countrymen domiciled in Ireland."

The Irish Times, the Government organ, expresses the hope that some satisfactory explanation will be forthcoming, for, "on